INTROIT

COME, LET US WORSHIP

CALL TO WORSHIP Romans 8:35

SENTENCES Psalm 104:24-33

(with Congregational Response)

O LORD, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

There is the sea, great and wide; creeping things innumerable are there, living things both small and great.

There go the ships and Leviathan that you formed to sport in it.

These all look to you to give them their food in due season;

when you give to them, they gather it up; when you open your hand, they are filled with good things.

When you hide your face, they are dismayed; when you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.

When you send forth your spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the ground.

May the glory of the LORD endure forever; may the LORD rejoice in his works-- who looks on the earth and it trembles, who touches the mountains and they smoke.

I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have being.

SALUTATION

Romans 8:14-17

For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, "Abba! Father!" it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if we in fact suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.....Grace Mercy and Peace be with you from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ.

Responsive Reading:

Acts 2:1-8

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place.

And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting.

Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them.

All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every people under heaven living in Jerusalem.

And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each.

Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?"

And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language?

PRAYER (in Unison):

God of boundless grace, you call us to drink freely of the well of life and to share the love of your holy being. May the glory of your love, made known in the victory of Jesus Christ, our Savior, transform our lives and the world he lived and died to save. We ask this in his name and for his sake. Amen.

RCA Global Mission

Jennifer Lucking

Trapped, isolated, hopeless, hurting—these feelings are just a glimpse into life as a victim of human trafficking and sexual exploitation. Look closer and you will quickly discover that these victims and survivors live in your community, shop at your local grocery store, and drive down the same roads as you—human trafficking happens closer than you think.

Jennifer is the Executive Director of Restorations Second Stage Homes, an organization in southern Ontario that exists to support survivors of sexual exploitation and human trafficking by providing long-term residential housing, survivor-led peer programming, and holistic care. Through Nancy's House and the Survivor-Led Peer Program, Restorations rejoices in each person's uniqueness; restores physical, spiritual, and mental wellbeing; and empowers individuals to step into their life's purpose.
